CONDITIONS OF SALE.

1.—The highest bidder, if in due time, to be the Purchaser, but subject to the Auctioneer reserving the right of refusing the bidding of any person; and should any dispute arise between two or more bidders, or between the Auctioneer and any bidder, the lot in dispute to be put up again or not at the discretion of the Auctioneer.

2.—No person to advance less than one shilling at each bidding, two shillings above £1, and so on in proportion, nor be allowed to retract a bidding.

3.—The Purchasers are to pay down immediately a deposit of Five Shillings in the Pound, or such other sum as the Auctioneer or his assistant may name, in part payment (each deposit to be applicable to any lot or lots), and to give in their names and places of abode when required; in default of which the lot or lots so purchased to be at the disposal of the Auctioneer.

4.—All lots are sold with all faults, imperfections and errors of description whatsoever, and must be cleared at the Purchaser's expense and risk before 4 o'clock on the day following the sale. The remainder of the purchase money must be paid before delivery, and in cases where one buyer purchases more than one lot the whole amount of the lots purchased is to be paid before any one lot can be delivered; also to prevent any inaccuracy in delivery and inconvenience of settlement of purchases, no lot can be on any account removed during the time of sale, and no person shall be entitled to anything not described in the catalogue. No lots will be transferred under any circumstances from one buyer to another.

5.—The Auctioneer or his client or clients shall not be liable for any goods resold by the Purchaser previously to the goods being delivered, but in the case of the Auctioneer or his client being unable to deliver any one or more lots the Purchaser shall receive back his purchase money in full.

6.—Should any lot remain uncleared for more than two days after the day of sale the same will be included in the next ensuing sale, and any deficit resulting from such re-sale shall be made good by the Purchaser of the said lot.

LASTLY.—The Auctioneer or his Assistant shall be the sole arbitrator in every matter of dispute

No Cheques will be taken.
